

GEOLOGY

Robert Blackett

Cedar City, UT

Occupation/Title: Senior Geologist

Where Employed: Utah Department of Natural Resources, Utah Geological Survey, Southern Regional Office

Education:

Weber State University, B.S., 1971, Geology.
University of Utah, M.S., 1979, Geological Engineering.

Areas of Expertise:

Mineral and energy resources of Utah
Geothermal resources of Utah
Geology of southern Utah

Publications:

Blackett, R.E., and Moore, J.N., 1994, editors, Cenozoic geology and geothermal systems of southwestern Utah: Utah Geological Association Publication 23, 215 p., ill., maps.

Blackett, R.E., and Tripp, B.T., 1998, Issues affecting development of natural aggregate near St. George and surrounding communities, Washington County, Utah, in Bobrowsky, P.T, editor, Aggregate resources, a global perspective, A.A. Balkema, Rotterdam/Brookfield, p. 183-202.

Doelling, H.H., Blackett, R.E., Hamblin, A.H, Powell, J.D., and Pollack, G.L., 2000, Geology of Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument, in Sprinkel, D.A., Chidsey, T.C., and Anderson, P.B., editors, Geology of Utah's parks and monuments: Utah Geological Association Publication 28, p. 189-231.

--- 2000, Geologic road guides to Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument, Kane and Garfield Counties, Utah, in Anderson, P.B. and Sprinkel, D.A., editors, Geologic road, trail, and Lake guides to Utah's parks and monuments: Utah Geological Association Publication 29, compact disk.

Community Involvement/Organizations/Memberships/Etc.:

Utah Geological Association
Utah Geothermal Working Group
Dixie Geological Society

Geological Society of America
Geothermal Resources Council